1. Hokusai Beauty The Brilliant women of Edo

WED 14 Feb.- SUN 8 Apr. 2018

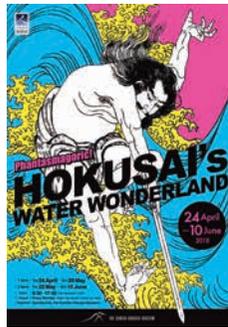

Hokusai is known for many stylistic transformations he achieved in his seventy-year career, including the distinctive styles he developed for depicting beautiful women (bijin, beauties). This exhibition introduced the fascination of Hokusai's portrayals of beautiful women and the glorious world of the Edo beauty.

2. Phantasmagoric! Hokusai's Water Wonderland

TUE 24 Apr. - SUN 10 Jun. 2018

We selected works from our collection offered the delights of the many faces of water as captured by Hokusai and his students. An iconic work "Under the Wave off Kanagawa, from Thirty-six Views of Mount Fuji" and the series "A Tour of the Waterfalls in Various Provinces" were on view.

3. MASUMURA Hiroshi Exhibition Featuring the Works of Hokusai ATAGOAL x HOKUSAI

TUE 26 Jun. - SUN 26 Aug. 2018

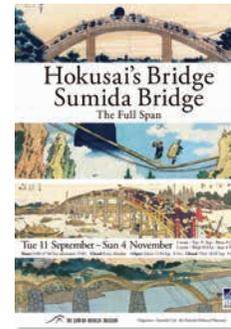

Manga artist Hiroshi Masumura's 'ATAGOAL x Hokusai' series depicted a utopian world where cats and humans live as equals. That purry ideal met ukiyo-e master Katsushika Hokusai's iconic works. Moreover, Hokusai's work gave inspiration for Masumura.

4. Hokusai's Bridge Sumida Bridge – The Full Span

TUE 11 Sept. – SUN 4 Nov. 2018

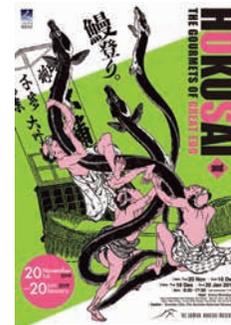

The first section of this exhibition presented bridges depicted by Hokusai and his pupils including the famous series "Remarkable Views of Bridges in Various Provinces". In the second section, our focus was on bridges in Sumida City and how bridges had developed and changed from Hokusai's day on. The historic changes in bridge structures, were illustrated using post-cards, blueprints and other materials.

5. Hokusai and the gourmets of Great Edo

TUE 20 Nov. 2018 – SUN 20 Jan. 2019

Our Hokusai and the Gourmets of Great Edo exhibition was held just five years after Washoku, the traditional dietary culture of the Japanese, had been recognized as a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage. The roots of that Washoku culture line in the Edo period. The exhibition was organized, with the flow of food, from farm and ocean to table, in mind.
